

Willingham

grand president of the Rho Fraternity. He had previously served as financial vice president. He is principal and founder of Ingredient Advisors, a St. Louis-based consulting company and vice president and partner in Miller Milling Company.

Webster Groves resident Charlie Walch recently celebrated the five-year anniversary of his business, 1st Choice Courier, with a ribbon cutting and open house of a new 90-square-foot warehouse at 4500 A. Goodfellow Ave. in St. Louis. St. Louis Mayor Francis Slay was on hand for the ribbon cutting.

RW / Webster Times

The Reids

Long-time Webster Groves residents Charles Sr. and Wilma K. Reid celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Sept. 28. Wilma celebrated her 68th birthday on the same day. They are both retired. Charles worked for the Webster Groves Post Office over 33 years.

Webster Groves native Dan Dirnberger recently received the Trailblazer Award from the Catholic Committee on Scouting. His scouting life began as a child at Annunciation Parish with Troop 350. He has been in leadership positions for many years. Dirnberger has most recently served in every position available at the St. James the Greater Parish program in South St. Louis.

ACTICE

- Podiatry
- LabCorp

ter

314-752-7100

1:00am

Medical Associates, Inc.